

Riders of the Week

October 10 – October 14, 2016

Kevin

Stephanie Fults has chosen Erik Kevin Alvarado for Rider of the Week. Kevin loves to play soccer, baseball, and watch movies. He is a big fan of Spiderman and Deadpool. His role models are police officers because they help protect people and catch the bad guys. When Kevin grows up, he hopes to become a professional baseball player. His teachers says, “Kevin is an excellent role model of a Moffett Champion. He always does his best and helps other friends in the classroom when he sees they need help.”

Ms. Rogers has chosen Victoria Baires for Rider of the Week. Victoria loves watching Dora the Explorer, playing hide-n-seek, and playing in the water. When she grows up, she would like to be a cheerleader. Victoria’s role model is her father because he takes good care of her. Ms. Rogers says, “Victoria always does her best. She comes in each day with a beautiful smile and she is eager to learn. She demonstrates the qualities of a proud, respectful Roughrider.”

Victoria

F.L Moffett

R³ = Roughriders are Respectful and Responsible