

Riders of the Week

October 10 – October 14, 2016

Claire Spann

Ms. Baugh has chosen Claire Spann for Rider of the Week. Her favorite book is To Kill a Mockingbird. For fun, Claire likes to play and watch sports, read, and watch movies. When she grows up she wants to be an athletic trainer because it combines her passion for sports and science, and she would like to be an influence on athletes. Her role models are her parents because they work so hard for their family. Ms. Baugh chose Claire because she says that Claire “has quickly demonstrated a knack for creative, out-of-the-box problem solving. She works hard in class and out. She keeps me on my toes and our class interesting. I love starting my day with her and her class!”

Ms. Burleson has chosen Octavius Evans for Rider of the Week. His favorite movie is Lean on Me, and he loves to chill with his friends and play games. When he graduates, Octavius plans on becoming a coach or an NFL player. His role model is Coach Cloudy because Octavius says he has been through a lot, and Coach Cloudy was always there to help him. Ms. Burleson says, “This young man is courteous, kind, and dependable. As an office aid, he has helped me out tremendously with delivering boxes, alerting me to situations, and is willing to help as needed. I have watched him interact with all students and he treats everyone with respect - taking the time to engage in conversation with everyone. It was particularly enlightening to watch him engage with our elementary students - he took the time not to just read with them but to ask them questions about what they liked and what they wanted to do later in life - he made them feel important.”
