

Riders of the Week

October 24 – October 28

Keaton Watlington has been chosen for Rider of the Week. His favorite movie is Napoleon Dynamite and he likes to play tennis, basketball, and compose music for the film club projects. In the future Keaton plans to become a professional composer. His role model is Hans Zimmer, because he had no music education but managed to become one of the top 3 composers in the last 30 years. His teacher, Mrs. Baugh, said Keaton “quickly demonstrated a knack for creative, out-of-the-box problem solving. He works hard in class and out. He keeps me on my toes and our class interesting. I love starting my day with him in my room!”

Sydney Denney has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Natalie Morse. Her favorite movie is Remember the Titans, and for fun she likes to hang out with her friends and dance. When she grows up she wants to become a radiation therapist and her role model is her grandmother because she has incredible patience, wisdom, and discipline. Mrs. Morse said, “Sydney has led the chaparrals for the last 3 years. She is dependable, caring, and creative. She is not just a captain in name. She makes so many of the decisions for the line and choreographs and changes routines as necessary to fit the needs of the girls. She has the respect of all the girls on the line as well as mine and Mrs. Whittlesey’s.”
