

Riders of the Week

November 7 – November 11

Gracie Whisenant has been chosen for Rider of the Week. Her favorite book is Shadow. Her role model is her mother because she is an amazing cook, she helps others, and she tries to make good things out of bad situations. For fun, she enjoys playing outside and playing sports. Holly Burns chose Gracie for Rider of the Week because she “is a super responsible student and always gets her work finished when she has been out with extracurricular activities without a reminder. She is willing to help others any time she is asked with a smile on her face.”

Mrs. Burns has also chosen Josh Stephenson for Rider of the Week. His favorite book is Inheritance Cycle and he enjoys riding his horse, shooting his bow, swimming, playing on his play station, hanging out with friends, and riding his bike. His father is his role model because he likes a lot of the same things as Joshua, and he is good with horses. Mrs. Burns chose Josh because, “he is always eager to learn. He works very hard and always does his best work. He has been a joy to teach this year.”

Center Middle School

R³ = Roughriders are Respectful and Responsible