

Riders of the Week

November 14 – November 18

Trinity Watson has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Mrs. Sullivan. For fun Trinity likes to play outside on the swings. Her role models are her teachers because they take time to teach her things and help her learn. When Trinity grows up she wants to be an artist because she loves to draw and paint, and she says that she gets her talent from her brother who is in the Art Institute. Trinity's teacher says, "Trinity is one of the students that every teacher loves to have, and I am blessed to call her mine." She works hard on every task she does and does it with a positive attitude. She loves to help others and always includes her classmates when working in class. Trinity is a go getter and she knows school is where learning happens!"

Grant Gregory has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Mrs. Corbell and Mrs. Crouch. For fun Grant likes to play his PlayStation with his brother when he gets home. His role model is his dad because he teaches Grant how to catch and throw the football, and he always takes the time to play games with him. When Grant grows up he really wants to be in the Coast Guard because he loves to swim and dreams of being able to save people one day. Grant's teacher says, "Grant is a great student with a very kind heart! Grant works hard on anything that he does and always does it with a smile on his face. He is a friend to everyone and is always respectful to adults."
