

Riders of the Week

November 28 – December 2

Alyssa

Alyssa White has been chosen for Rider of the Week. She loves the movie Fault in Our Stars, and for fun, she enjoys spending time with her family, playing tennis, and twirling. Her mother is her role model because she puts effort into everything she does and tackles everything she can. Her social studies teacher, Mrs. Armstrong, says, “Alyssa is an excellent student! She is always prepared for class and is not afraid to ask a question, even if it means emailing the teacher. She always has a smile on her face and communicates well with others.”

Mrs. Armstrong also chose Hollis Polk for Rider of the Week. His favorite movie is Forrest Gump, and for fun he enjoys playing video games, watching tv, and spending time outdoors. His role model is Odell Beckham Jr. because he is a tremendous athlete and a positive person. Mrs. Armstrong says, “Hollis is an excellent student! He always come to class on time, prepared, and ready to work. He clears a spot for his "work area" so he has plenty of room to work each day, and he always stays on task.”
