

Riders of the Week

November 28 – December 2

Sheila Ruiz has been chosen for Rider of the Week by her teachers, Mrs. Corbell and Mrs. Crouch. When Sheila grows up, she wants to become a teacher because she really likes kids. Her role models are her parents because they don't ever let her give up and they are always right beside her. In her spare time, Sheila loves to play soccer with her team and friends. Her teachers say, "She is a joy to be around and she is the type of student that you can depend on 100%. Sheila works really hard on any task given to her and she a strong leader at CES for others to follow."

Ryder Moody has also been chosen for Rider of the Week by his teacher, Mrs. Sullivan. When Ryder grows up, he wants to become a police officer because he would love the ability to protect others. His role models are his parents because they word hard and set good examples for him to follow. For fun, he enjoys playing baseball at the baseball park. His teacher says, "Ryder is a very compassionate child that loves to give hugs in the morning and that starts my day out just right. Ryder listens very well and even if something is difficult, he does not give up. Everyone appreciated Ryder's attitude and his love for learning."
