

Riders of the Week

December 5 - December 9

Carlos Vazquez

Lee Ann Masterson has chosen Carlos Vazquez for Rider of the Week. Carlos loves the movies Daddy Day Care, God's Not Dead 2, and A Good Day to Die Hard, and in his spare time he loves to play with his family. He says they have fun every day! He also enjoys playing with his PlayStation and playing tag at school. When Carlos grows up, he wants to be a mechanic like his dad. He enjoys seeing cars and discovering how they work. His father's hard work as a mechanic makes him a role model of Carlos. Mrs. Masterson says, "Carlos is a very hard worker and has an amazingly kind heart. He is considerate of his classmates and his teachers. He is a pleasure to teach and always has a great attitude! Carlos has a wonderful smile and laugh that can brighten any classroom."

Mrs. Masterson also nominated Hollie Herndon for Rider of the Week. Hollie loves Charlie Brown because she says it is "old-fashioned." Her role model is Elvis Presley because his music is creative, old-fashioned, and glamorous. For fun, she loves to draw and sketch. When Hollie grows up, she wants to become a comedian because people have told her that she is funny. Because of these compliments, Hollie has been working on new jokes. She says, "Not to brag, but I have won class comedian in the second grade." Congrats, Hollie! Mrs. Masterson says Hollie is "highly self motivated, a problem solver, a leader, and a great helper to her classmates and teacher. She is a very conscientious student who consistently works hard in classroom in everything she does. Hollie is very creative and her "outside of the box" thinking often leads to classroom discussions and learning opportunities for all."
