

Riders of the Week

December 5 - December 9

Jayden

Jayden Khan has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Mrs. Fuller. His favorite movie is Batman Legos. His role model is Batman because he helps people. He is always just in time to save the day. When Jayden grows up, he plans on becoming a teacher. He says, "I will have good students and I will teach them about rocks, dinosaurs, butterflies and other animals." For fun, he likes to play with his friends at school and play with his toys when he is at home. His teacher says, "Jayden is always helpful and he makes good choices. He is a great role model for his classmates."

Mrs. Fitzgerald has chosen Gabriella Heady for Rider of the Week. Gabriella's favorite movie is Batman Faces Superman. Her mother is her role model because Gabriella loves her and says she is a very nice person. When she grows up, she would like to be a police officer because some of them have dogs and they help keep people safe. For fun, Gabriella likes to play outside and work on the computer at school. At home, she likes to play with her toys. Her teacher says, "Gabriella takes great pride in doing her work neatly and correctly."
