

Riders of the Week

December 5 - December 9

Blane Agnew

Blane Agnew has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Doug Moore. Blane's favorite book is The Bible and his favorite movie is The Ten Commandments. For fun Blane likes to hunt, golf, fish, play the drums, and participate in church activities. His role model is god because of who he is and how, and when Blane grows up he wants to become an orthopedic surgeon he says, "I'm not sure if that's going to happen because God has the final say in what goes on in my life. I want to do what I feel like He wants because I know that is going to make me the happiest." Blane was chosen because he is one of the quiet kids that too often goes unnoticed. He comes to class prepared and always does his best. Blane is always willing to help others

Madison McMillan has also been chosen for Rider of the Week by Doug Moore. Madison's favorite movie is Courageous, and for fun she likes to hang out with my friend and play sports. Her role model is her mom because she has a smile on her face even when she is stressed or facing obstacles. When Madison grows up, she wants to be a psychologist and a part-time missionary because helping people and making them smile makes Madison the happiest! Mr. Moore says, "Madison is one of those very busy students that doesn't forget what school is about. Even though math is probably not her favorite subject, she still shows up with a great attitude."

Madison McMillan

Center High School

R³ = Roughriders are Respectful and Responsible