

Riders of the Week

December 12 – December 16

Yareli Hernandez

Ms. Daniels nominated Yareli Hernandez for Rider of the Week. Yareli's favorite book is Janey's Girl. She admires her grandparents and wants to be like them someday, because they are the kindest and nicest people she knows. For fun she likes to practice basketball and ride her bike. Mrs. Daniels, Yareli's art teacher, chose her because "she is not only a great artist but also a kind and respectful student. She is always helping others in the classroom. She is very dependable and hardworking as well. She is very creative, and I am always excited to see what she makes."

Ms. Daniels also nominated Raul Rebollar for Rider of the Week. His favorite book is Diary of a Wimpy Kid; his favorite movie is The Book of Life. Raul's mother is his role model, because she is "nice and really hard-working." For fun Raul likes to play sports, especially soccer. Ms. Daniels chose Raul because "he is such a kind, hard-working student. He is great at drawing and has great craftsmanship and attention to detail. His kindness, respect, and smiling face always brighten up the classroom."
