

Riders of the Week

January 9 - January 13

Lance Wilburn

Lance Wilburn has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Nikki Clark. Lance's favorite movie is Real Steel and for fun he likes to play baseball and football. His role model is Ezekiel Elliott because he is very good at football and he has a good record. When he grows up Lance wants to be a football player because that is his favorite sport. Mrs. Clark said, "Lance Wilburn is a perceptive, sharp, quick individual with a high aptitude for math and science. He is driven to understand how things work. He has been a strong leader for his groups, and he is eager to share his knowledge with others and learn new skills. Lance is a respectful and responsible young man with a bright future ahead."

Carson Crouch has also been chosen for Rider of the Week by Nikki Clark. Her favorite movie is Minute from Heaven and for fun she likes to play with her neighbor and play softball. Her role model is her mom because she is there for Carson when she needs her. When she grows up Carson wants to be a nurse that preps people for surgery. Mrs. Clark said, "Carson Crouch has an active, outgoing presence in class with a great sense of humor. Carson's the perfect person to get a group project rolling, but she also knows how to sit back and let others take the lead. Her cheerful nature and openness to feedback means she's always learning and growing as a learner, an impressive strength that will continue to serve her well in the future."

Carson Crouch

Center Intermediate School

R³ = Roughriders are Respectful and Responsible