

Riders of the Week

January 9 - January 13

Aniya

Aniya Jackson has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Mrs. Phelps. Her favorite movie is Minions and for fun she likes to play on her iPad or with playdoh. Her role model is her mom because she has a job and takes care of her family. When Aniya grows up she wants to be a vet because she loves animals. Mrs. Phelps said, "I chose Aniya because she is a great example of a Rider. She is very respectful and responsible. She is always willing to help others and is always smiling."

Brant Wells has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Mrs. Fults. His favorite movie is Twister and for fun he likes to swim, fish, jump on the trampoline, and ride his family's camo mule (atv). Brant's role model is his dad because he fishes and Brant loves to fish, and he goes to see his Paw Paw in the nursing home. When he grows up Brant wants to be a banker because he wants to work with money. Mrs. Fults said, "He is well mannered, full of questions, and always trying his best. He shows his Rider Pride by being a champion."
