

Riders of the Week

January 17 - January 20

Wyatt Stone

Wyatt Stone has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Mr. Miller. His favorite book is Flint by Louis L'amour, and for fun he likes to be outside in the woods or working on or racing his dirt bike. His role model is Cooper Webb. He is a professional who never quits in motocross racing, which is what Wyatt wants to pursue as a career. Mr. Miller chose Wyatt because he is always cheerful. He is a leader among his class and is willing to help a student when needed. Mr. Miller has enjoyed getting to know Wyatt this year.

Thu Paw has also been chosen for Rider the Week by Mr. Miller. Her favorite book is Tell My Mood Ring How I Feel, and for fun she loves reading a book, writing, and drawing. Her role model is her mom because she's very hard-working and she never gives up on what she's doing or working for. Thu Paw was chosen by Mr. Miller because she always has a smile to brighten the day. She is innovative and creative. She thinks outside the box and keeps Mr. Miller anxiously awaiting her final products. Mr. Miller says he is privileged to get to know her this year.
