

Riders of the Week

January 17 - January 20

Heaven Thomas has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Miss. Penner. Her role model is her mother because she loves to take time to help Heaven with her homework and she takes care of her grandmother. When she grows up, Heaven really wants to be a doctor because she thinks it would be fun to take care of people. For fun she loves to play hide-and-go-seek with her brothers when she gets home. Heaven's teacher, Miss Penner, says "Heaven is so deserving of writer of the week because she radiates positivity and happiness in everything she does." She goes on to say that heaven is "always smiling and always cheerful. If a friend gets hurt, she is there to help them and shows genuine concern. She has a caring heart, a sweet disposition and a friend to all. A great example when it comes to our worth ethic as she always gives 100%."

Kayden Nutt has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Mrs. Lyles. His role model is his mom because she helps to take care of him and she loves to take time to play with him. Kayden wants to grow up to be a professional football player because he wants to go to the Super Bowl. For fun he loves to play hide-and-go-seek in the dark with his uncle, aunt and cousins. Kayden's teacher, Mrs. Lyles, says, "Kayden is the perfect nominee for Rider of the Week because he is respectful to others and responsible in everything he does." She goes on to say that, "Kayden is one of the most helpful soon as she knows and is always friendly and kind to others."

Center Elementary School

R³ = Roughriders are Respectful and Responsible