

Riders of the Week

January 23 - January 27

Tobias Gossett

Tobias Gossett has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Mr. Watlington. His favorite movie is Don't Breathe. Tobias's role model is Mr. Watlington because he is a great teacher and a really funny person. Tobias wants to be in law enforcement when he grows up because they help people and people look up to them. In his free time he likes to either be on his phone or practice for certain events. Mr. Watlington says, "When the year first began in theatre class, Toby never spoke. He listened. He nodded. He grinned. But he didn't say anything. Then one day.... Boom! He performed in a scene with three other guys and he absolutely nailed it! Ever since then, he is one of the few students who gets everyone's attention. He is cool---there's no one like Toby!"

Sierra Harvey has also been chosen for Rider to the Week by Mr. Watlington. Her favorite book and movie is Paper Towns. Her role model is his mother because she has always been there for Sierra. Sierra wants to be a registered nurse when she grows up because her whole family is in nursing on her mom's side. For fun Sierra likes to read, binge watch TV, and play on her phone. Mr. Watlington chose Sierra out of theatre class. He says, "Students are encouraged to be creative and distinctive. Most of them are creative but only a few are distinctive - creative in their own way. When Sierra gets going, there is no one like her. It is fun to watch her work!"
