

Riders of the Week

May 1, 2014

"Preparing Students for Their Future"

FL Moffett: Kinzley Pinkston and Sean White

Kinzley Pinkston is in Mrs. Duvon's Kindergarten Class. Tinker Bell is her favorite movie and she likes to read many books! Her aunt Darcie is her role model because she is always nice to Kinzley and to other people. She would love to be a famous singer because she likes to sing. For fun, she likes playing outside with her brother. She teaches him how to swing. She also likes swimming with Darcie and going to the park. Kinzley is such a sweet girl and a wonderful role model for others. She is a good friend to other students and she makes great choices at school and does her best! This is why Kinzley is one of FL Moffett's Riders of the Week.

Sean White is in Mrs. Covington's Kindergarten Class. The Green Lantern II is his favorite movie and he likes to read lots of different books. The Green lantern is Sean's role model because he saves the world. He would like to be famous for saving the world and for being an artist. His teacher says he is a really good artist. When he isn't at school, he likes to draw, playing outside and playing with his friends. Sean is a super role model for his classmates. He is a hard worker and is always considerate of others. He always makes great choices and puts forth effort. This is why Sean was chosen as this week's Rider of the Week!

Center Elementary: Gabby Whisenant and Francisco Ceferino

Gabby Whisenant is in Ms. Dillard's Second Grade class. Her favorite movie is the Teen Beach Movie because they sing and surf a lot! Her Mom is her role model because she takes good care of the family and helps Gabby whenever she needs it. She really wants to grow up to be a famous Country Music Singer. For fun, she loves to swim at home with her sister where they play football in the water. Mrs. Dillard says, "Gabby is a kind hearted student that works very hard in class." Gabby has a smile that will light up a room and it's that smile that really makes Gabby stand out. She is a model student that is always doing more than she has to do. These are just a few of the reasons that Gabby is a Super Star at CES!!!

Francisco Ceferino is in Ms. Caraway's First Grade class. His favorite movie is Rio 2 because he says it is funny and he loves to laugh. Francisco says that his cousin is his role model because he is nice to everyone, and he loves to spend time with Francisco. He really wants to grow up to become a famous painter and paint pictures of animals and insects. In his spare time, he loves to play in his pool at home with his cousin. Mrs. Caraway says, "Francisco is such a caring student that always puts others first." He can always be counted on to help other students and his teacher. He is awesome at questioning and sharing his love for learning. Everyone on campus is thankful for his kind words and excellent manners. These are just a few of the reasons that Francisco is a Super Star at CES!!!

Center Intermediate: Krystin Yarbrough and Bryce Hayes

Krystin Yarbrough is in Fifth Grade. Her favorite movie is Free Willy. Her Mom is her role model because she encourages her and helps her. Krystin wants to become famous one day for giving money to others in need. Just for fun, she likes to watch TV. Krystin was chosen as Rider of the Week because she works extremely hard on everything she does and she never gets in trouble or misbehaves. She works so very well with others and is an all around nice girl!

Bryce Hayes is in Fourth Grade. His favorite movies are Legion and World War Z. Bryce's role model is his cousin Michael because he's a sheriff. He really hopes to grow up and become a sheriff like his cousin. For fun, he likes to play his Xbox. Bryce was chosen as Rider of the Week because he is very well-mannered no matter what situation he encounters and constantly works hard to overcome obstacles.

Center Middle School: Sparkle Lilly and Logan Speedy

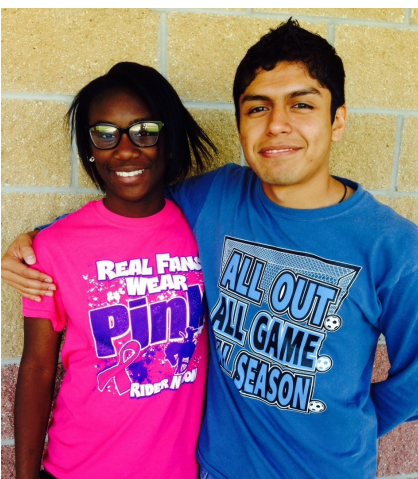

Sparkle Lilly and Logan Speedy have been chosen by 8th grade ELAR teacher, Stephnie Helton. Sparkle is involved in CMS basketball, volleyball, and track, as well as AAU basketball. She hopes to earn a kinesiology degree at Louisiana Tech and have a career in physical or occupational therapy or sports management. She would love to be famous one day for basketball, and making good decisions. She enjoys Social Studies, ELAR, and Athletics classes. Sparkle's role model is Brittany Griner because she is intelligent and a good athlete. Her favorite book is The Giver and favorite movie is Radio. Mrs. Helton says, "Sparkle is a very dedicated and motivated young lady. She always greets her with a smile and an upbeat attitude. She works hard to overcome any obstacles in her way." Mrs. Helton is very proud of Sparkle's accomplishments this year.

Logan's interests include football and baseball. His role model is his dad because he is always there for him when he needs him. Logan's favorite college is SFA and he would like to have a career involving working on cars, perhaps as a mechanic. His favorite subject is English. His favorite book is The Giver. Mrs. Helton is proud of Logan's hard work and positive attitude all year long. Logan always brightens the day with his smile. She states that "he is a model student and she is excited to see what the future has in store for him."

Center High School: Brianna Suell and Aldo Luna

Brianna Suell is a Junior. Her favorite book is House of Leaves. Brianna chose her Mom as her role model because she is very encouraging and strives to do her best in everything. In the future, she would love to become famous as a motivational, inspirational speaker. After high school, Brianna plans to attend Dallas Baptist University. While at CHS, she has been an extremely active member of the UIL Academic team and is one of the top competitors in CX Debate. She is also a member of the Beta Club, Track Team, and Powerlifting Team. Brianna was chosen as Rider of the Week because she is one of the best examples of 'academics first.' She is very involved in extracurricular activities, but she takes pride in striving for greatness in knowledge as well as in other areas. Brianna also has such a warm, funny, and friendly personality that draws people in around her. She gives every aspect of her academic and extracurricular career 100% and excels in all areas. She is an amazing role model for the students at CHS!

Aldo Luna is a Senior. His favorite book is The Outsiders by S.E. Hinton. His father is his role model because he is always teaching Aldo the values and principles of life. He is always supportive and telling Aldo that 'anything is possible!' Aldo wants to be famous in business or accounting, but most of all for just making a difference in the world. He'd even settle for just making a difference in someone else's life. After graduation, he plans to attend Angelina College and then transfer to the University of Houston. Aldo is a member of the Rider Soccer team, and is on the UIL Academic Science and Accounting Team which received 2nd place at District and has qualified for Regional. He is also a member of the National Honor Society. As is obvious in his listed activities, Aldo is also the epitome of what a well rounded student should be. He dedicates himself to his studies, but is just as active and participative in extracurricular activities. Aldo has a contagious smile and genuinely compassionate personality that makes him easy to warm up to and one of the most admirable students on campus. He has impeccable manners and truly is concerned for the welfare of others.