

Riders of the Week

January 30 – February 3

Hudsyn Wulf has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Mrs. Radney. Her role model is Mrs. Radney because she is kind to her even when she is not feeling good. When she grows up Hudsyn wants to be a baby doctor because she loves babies. For fun she likes to play basketball with her brother. Her teacher says, “Hudsyn is so compassionate toward others and goes out of her way to make sure everyone has a friend. She gives 110% in all of her work and always has a positive attitude towards school. Her energy and giving personality are contagious to those around her.”

Aaron Alvarado has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Ms. Lyles. His Role model is his mom because she takes good care of him and cooks really well. When he grows up, Aaron really wants to be a meteorologist because he loves to learn about weather. For fun he loves to play soccer with his sister after school. Aaron's teacher says, “Aaron is such a funny, sweet and helpful young man. Aaron is always respectful to others and works really hard in the classroom. Doing his best in everything he does is just how he does business. He is such a great friend a role model for others to follow.”
