

Riders of the Week

February 6 – February 10

Jakevin Robinson

Jakevin Robinson has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Melissa Munoz. His favorite book is Strikeout Kings and for fun he likes to play basketball with his friends and family. His role model is his PaPa because he buys Jakevin whatever he wants and he takes good care of him. When he grows up, Jakevin wants to be a famous NBA star for the Golden State Warriors. His teacher said, “Jakevin is always prepared for class, helps out his classmates, and is very organized. He even goes out of his way to organize the class supplies. He spends time wisely and values learning. He is calm, hardworking, and a positive role model for his classmates.”

Ashlynn Midkiff has also been chosen for Rider of the Week by Melissa Munoz. Her favorite movie is Trollz and for fun she likes to do flips and tumble. Her role model is her Paw Paw because he is funny and nice. When she grows up Ashlynn wants to be a teacher because they get to help kids. Mrs. Munoz said, “Ashlynn is very conscious of her work and is not afraid to challenge herself when it comes to writing. She excelled in her classes and also participated in UIL spelling. I look forward to seeing her accomplish great achievements in her future.”

Ashlynn Midkiff

Center Intermediate School

R³ = Roughriders are Respectful and Responsible