

Riders of the Week

February 20 – February 24

Derek Edenshaw

Kimberly Harvey has chosen Derek Edenshaw for Rider of the Week. Derek's favorite movie is A Dog's Surprise, and his favorite books are from the Goosebumps Series. His role model is Papa because he recycles, and he wishes to become a caretaker for both people and animals because they need quality care! For fun, Derek loves to play games, watch TV, play on his laptop, jump on the trampoline, and play many sports such as: basketball, baseball and soccer. Ms. Harvey says, "Derek is one of the sweetest kids I know. He loves to give hugs and he always tells me he hopes I 'have a nice day.' He is very smart and well behaved."

Ms. Harvey also chose Trista Britt for Rider of the Week. Her favorite movie is A Dog's Purpose, and she loves to read books from the Diary of a Wimpy Kid series. Her role model is her older brother because he looks out for her. When Trista grows up, she wants to become an actress because she says it looks like a fun job to do. Until then, she will continue doing what she enjoys: gymnastics, playing with her puppy named Peanut, jumping on the trampoline and hiking. Ms. Harvey says, "She is a very sweet girl who cares about those around her. She is smart and a hard worker."
