

Riders of the Week

February 13 – February 17

Cooper Crawford has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Mrs. Fuller. His favorite movie is The Lego Batman Movie, and for fun he likes to come to school and learn. Cooper's role model is John Cena because he is the number 1 fighter, and he wants to be a fighter. When he grows up Cooper wants to be a soldier because they help people. Mrs. Fuller said, "I chose Cooper because he works hard and is always ready to learn. He cares about others and shows it by helping them learn. He follows directions the first time. He is a role model."

Jahaveion Brinson has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Becky Rogers. His favorite movie is Power Rangers, and for fun he likes to play football and ride his scooter. His role model is his PawPaw because he is nice to him. When Jahaveion grows up he wants to be a football player because he likes football. His teacher said, "Jahaveion is always ready to help. He is always thoughtful with his classmates. He is very respectful of his teachers and classmates."
