

Riders of the Week

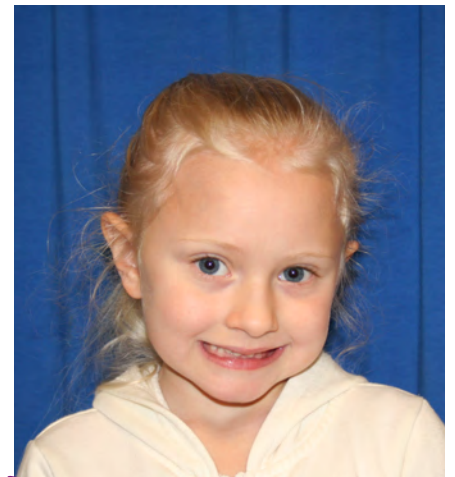

February 20 – February 24

RAYMOND

Becky Rogers has chosen Raymond Dance for Rider of the Week. Raymond loves the movie, Paw Patrol – Rubble to the Rescue, and he enjoys jumping on the trampoline and playing with his dogs and cats. His Grandpa Ray is his role model because he takes care of him. When Raymond grows up, he wants to be a teacher because it will make him feel good and he loves “talking all day.” His teacher says, “Ray is always so polite and willing to help his friends and his teachers. He is such a caring person. He always tries his very best every day.”

Michelle Covington has chosen Gracie Elder for Rider of the Week. Gracie loves to read Pete the Cat, fly her kite, and play with her brother. She also loves to cook and plans on becoming a chef! She gathers inspiration from The Cake War Chefs, which is her favorite show, on TV. Her teacher says, “Gracie is a very sweet, caring and hardworking student. She is always considerate of others and is the perfect example of a respectful, responsible Rider.”
