Ms. Hroncich has chosen Guadalupe Bustos for Rider of the Week. His role model is his dad because he helps him when he needs help, he works hard to care for him, and he is super nice to Guadalupe! When Guadalupe grows up, he wants to be a police officer so that he can grow up to help protect his community. For fun, he loves to ride bikes with his sister after school. Guadalupe's teacher says, "He has the most sincere and genuine heart, he is a great friend to all, and he is always the first to help out when someone needs a hand. Guadalupe's love for learning and his thirst for reading brings him on magical journeys that he loves to share with his friends."

Ms. Bryan has chosen Kenley Ramos for Rider of the Week. Her role model is her momma because she works really hard to help the family and she is nice to everyone and takes care of those that need it. Kenley wants to be a teacher when she grows up because she wants to help others learn. For fun, she loves to play school with her sisters when she gets home. Kenley's teacher says, "She is a great role model for other students who always gets along wonderfully with other students. She is not only a great student who works super hard, but is also an all-around great kid! Kenley is a sweet young lady and an absolute joy to have in class."
