

Riders of the Week

February 26 – March 3

Allison Hicks

Paula Keese has chosen Allison Hicks for Rider of the Week. Her favorite movie and book are Hannah Montana because she is a good singer and her movie makes Allison laugh! Her mother is her role model because she is famous in the family for cooking great stuff. Allison loves her pizza, hamburger, macaroni and cookie recipes! Allison wants to be a doctor when she grows up because she wants to help people and kids. For fun, she enjoys playing kickball, freeze tag, and hide & seek. She also loves playing dress-up with her sister, Wendy, listening to music, reading books, and playing with her dog, Princess. Ms. Keese chose Allison because she “always tries her best with a smile on her face.”

Ms. Keese has also chosen Jesus Parra. His favorite book is Diary of a Wimpy Kid because it is funny and makes him laugh. His father is his role model, and Jesus says he respects his father because he takes care of him, plays soccer with him, and takes him to church. When Jesus grows up, he would like to be a soccer player because it is fun, fast paced, and he can become famous for it. Until his soccer breakthrough, Jesus will continue doing what he loves: playing outside, visiting the park, playing video games, and playing with his dog. His teacher chose him because he “never gives up and is always willing to try something new.”

Jesus Parra

Center Intermediate School

R³ = Roughriders are Respectful and Responsible