

Riders of the Week

March 27 - March 31

Ella Shires

Ella Shires is thirteen years old and in the eighth grade. Her favorite movie is 'Man From U.N.C.L.E.'. Her mom is her role model because she is successful in life. Ella likes to read, listen to music, and play the ukulele. Ella was chosen from Mrs. Andrews' yearbook class. Mrs. Andrews says, "Ella is one of those students who just do whatever is needed to get the job done. Even though technology has not allowed the staff to work on yearbook much this year, Ella always has a great attitude and comes in with that sweet smile every single day. Ella is just a great all-around student with a bright future ahead of her."

Angel Garcia is in the eighth grade. His mom is his role model because she teaches him to become independent and succeed in life. Angel wants to be an architect because the job is constantly evolving and it will be an excited job. He likes to watch TV, ride his bike, and hang out with friends. Angel was also chosen from Mrs. Andrews' yearbook class. Mrs. Andrews says, "Angel is a very bright young man with a terrific work ethic. He does whatever is asked of him and does it with a great attitude. Angel just makes my morning much brighter. I believe he is destined to achieve great things in his future."

Angel Garcia

Center Middle School

R³ = Roughriders are Respectful and Responsible