

Riders of the Week

March 27 – March 31

Alex Gomez has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Ms. Caraway. His role model is his mother because she makes sure he has good clothes and shoes to wear, and she left her job so she could spend more time with her children. When Alex grows up, he wants to be a police officer because they catch bad people and keep people safe. For fun, he enjoys playing soccer with his brothers when he gets home from school. Alex's teacher says, "Alex has a love for learning that is admirable. He is a friend to everyone and is always ready to help others. Alex's smile is infectious and he is always ready to make every day the best day ever. He works well with others and has a persistent and follow-through type of attitude."

Genesis Chavez has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Ms. Jurecka. Her grandma is her role model because she loves her and takes time to spend with her. When Genesis grows up she wants to be a doctor because they help people feel better. For fun, Genesis loves to play on the swings at CES during recess. Her teacher says, "She is always kind to others, respecting all, and she is polite at all times. Genesis always shares with her classmates and always desires to help others. She is a hard worker and is a wonderful role model for her peers to follow, displaying a 'never give up' attitude."
