

Riders of the Week

March 27 - March 31

Kevin Arcibar

Kevin Arcibar has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Kris Rash. His favorite movie is Power Rangers, and his favorite book is about the solar system. His role model is his friend Ethan because he is a friend who plays soccer with him. When Kevin grows up, he wants to be a pizza deliveryman because he loves to deliver pizzas! Kevin loves to play games, play with friends outside, and play sports. His teacher chose him because she says, “he is aware of other people’s feelings and he is truly nice to everyone.”

Sayre Hall has also been chosen for Rider of the Week by Kris Rash. She loves the movie, Miracles from Heaven, and her favorite books are from the Nancy Drew series. Her mother is her role model because she works hard and takes care of Sayre’s family. When she grows up, Sayre would like to be a cosmetologist, because she loves doing people’s hair. For fun, Sayre loves to play softball, go outside, and spend time with her family. Her teacher says, “she is a very dedicated student and is a pleasure to work with everyday.”
