

Riders of the Week

April 10 – April 13

Ms. Baggett has chosen Katherine Leyva for Rider of the Week. Her favorite books are from the Magic Treehouse series because she loves to read and learn from them. Her role model is Alex Morgan, the soccer player, because she is an exceptional athlete. When Katherine grows up, she would like to take care of pets and possibly play soccer. Until then, she will continue to do what she enjoys: drawing pictures and playing outside with her animals. Ms. Baggett says Katherine is a wonderful Fine Arts student. “She works quietly and independently in class. Katherine takes her time and always does her best. Her beautiful art work really shows the care she puts into it.”

Ms. Baggett has also chosen Set Lah Wah for Rider of the Week. His favorite movie is The Power Rangers, and he loves to read books from the Diary of a Wimpy Kid series. His mother is his role model because she is brave and she teaches him how to read. When Set Lah Wah grows up, he want to be a builder so he can create homes for those who do not have one. For fun, he enjoys playing board games and going to the zoo. Ms. Baggett says, “Set Lah is a joy to have in Fine Arts. He is quite creative and his drawings are beautiful and imaginative. Set Lah comes to Fine Arts ready to work and to do his best.”
