

Riders of the Week

April 10 – April 14

Conner Nutt has been chosen for Rider of the Week. His father is his role model because he takes time to teach him how to play baseball and he is always happy to help him with his homework. When Conner grows up, he wants to be a professional basketball player because he wants to play for lots of teams and get awards. For fun, he loves to play football with his brother after school. Conner's teacher, Ms. Bennett, says, "Conner comes to school every day with a positive attitude and that positive attitude is contagious! He is the first one to jump up and help whenever it is needed. He has a bright personality and we can't help but smile when he walks into the room."

Savannah Cassell has been chosen for Rider of the Week. Her father is her role model because he takes the time to teach her how to play softball and he works hard every day to take care of his girls. When she grows up, Savannah would like to become an artist because she loves to draw. For fun, she enjoys playing at the beach on vacation. She loves to be in the water! Savannah's teacher, Ms. Dutton, says, "Savannah is the kindest and hardest working student I've ever taught. She does everything that is asked of her the best she can, and she never complains. I have witnessed her with other students that are challenging and she is kind to them in every situation. I believe Savannah has a heart of gold and patience like no other."
