

Riders of the Week

April 10 – April 13

Cam Murray

Cam Murray has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Mrs. Phelps. His favorite movie is Batman, and his favorite book is Puppy Pirates. Cam's role model is his father because he is a football player and now he is a police officer! When Cam grows up, he wants to be a football player because he wants to be a quarterback. He LOVES football! When he gets home from school, Cam enjoys playing with his brother. They love to play tag and scare each other. His teacher says, "I chose Cam as Rider of the Week because he is a great student. He works hard and loves learning to read. Cam always tries his best and likes helping others. He is a great example for our campus."

Michelle Covington has chosen Jordin Rhone for Rider of the Week. Her favorite movie is Frozen, and she loves to play outside with her family and bounce on the trampoline. Her mother is her role model because she cooks really well and takes care of her family. When Jordin grows up, she wants to be a chef because her mother and father let her help them cook and she thinks it is very fun. Her teacher says, "Jordin is very kind and caring. She loves to come to school and learn. She is very respectful and responsible."
