

Riders of the Week

April 18 - April 21

Gabriel Davis

Vicki Baggett has nominated Gabriel Davis for Rider of the Week. His favorite book is Hatchet because it is interesting and has a lot of action. His favorite movie is Beauty and the Beast because it is fun and interesting. His brother Seth is his role model because he takes the time to show him how to draw and helps him with his math homework. When Gabriel grows up, he wants to be a graphic designer because his brother has encouraged him to become one because of his artistic skill. Seth says that Gabriel has talent, his art is really good, and his pictures could be used for many things in the future. Gabriel says he really loves drawing, soccer and swimming with his cousins. His teacher says, "Gabriel is a model fine arts student. He stays focused, works hard, and takes advantage of his time in fine arts. His artwork shows his care and attention to detail. I always enjoy having Gabriel in class."

Vicki Baggett has also chosen Rosalyn Wright for Rider of the Week. Her favorite movie is Avatar: Last Air Bender, and Smoke and Shadow Part 3 is her favorite book because of all the action and emotion. Her mother is her role model because she is caring, helpful, and full of energy, which is why Rosalyn hopes to one day be like her. When she grows up, Rosalyn says, "I want to be an actress when I grow up because ever since age 4 or 5, I would watch all of the movies that were really good, and I thought about what it would be like to actually be in a movie, so that's how it started." For fun, Rosalyn says, "I like to draw anime because you can make it your own. I like to play the game. I also like to hang out with friends just to talk about what's been going on lately and how everyone is doing." Ms. Baggett, Rosalyn's fine arts teacher, says, "Rosalyn is a very creative student, always putting a new spin on her assignments. She is enthusiastic, stays focused, and does her best. I always look forward to having Rosalyn in class."
