

Riders of the Week

May 1 – May 5

Ms. Bartlett has chosen Izzy Jackson for Rider of the Week. Izzy's role model is his mother because she does everything she can as a single parent to make sure he is healthy and happy. His mother always makes sure Izzy knows he is loved when he is sad. Izzy wants to be a judge when he grows up so that he can set examples of what is right so others will do the right thing. For fun, Izzy loves to play wrestling and basketball. He loves water balloons and riding his bicycle with his friend. Izzy's teacher says, "Izzy has been a model of good citizenship throughout the school year. He demonstrates awesome work ethic and excellent leadership skills. He is always respectful and contributes to everyone's learning with his thoughtfulness and creativity."

Paw Say has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Ms. Campbell. Her mother is her role model because she takes the time to help her with homework and Paw always has good food to eat. When Paw grows up, she wants to be an art teacher because she wants to teach children how to draw. For fun, Paw loves to ride her bike with her BFF when she gets home from school. Paw Say's teacher says, "Paw is always sweet and kind to other students. She goes out of her way to be helpful to other classmates and the teacher. She always has an encouraging smile on her face and sets a daily example of what a Rider of the Week should be."

Ms. Ruiz has chosen Oswaldo Reyes for Rider of the Week. His father is his role model because he takes the time to help him with his homework and he sets a good example of working hard to take care of the family. Oswaldo wants to grow up and become a police officer because he wants to help others who are in need. For fun, he loves to play at the park with his friends. Oswaldo's teacher says, "Oswaldo is a spectacular student who comes to school every day ready and eager to learn. He never gives up, no matter how difficult the task. He is an awesome friend to all and always wants to lend a helping hand. He strives to give 100% and be a positive role model for others."
