

Riders of the Week

October 30 – November 3

CHS

EUGENE NUNEZ

“Eugene works hard in class every day and always does a good job. He is also one of the stars of our UIL Calculator Team as they try to make it back to Regionals and possibly State.”

- Doug Moore, UIL Coordinator

MADISON KIRBY

“She works hard in all of her classes and in every activity. Her positive attitude is infectious and she is a pleasure to see every day.”

- Alexandria Bowen, Floral Design

CMS

JALEN POSTELL

“Adrian Gonzalez is a very hard working young man who represents good behavior on a daily basis. He never hesitates to make good decisions and has a great attitude.”

- Grant Murphree, 6th grade

ADRIAN GONZALEZ

“Jalen Postell is a bright young lady who is as respectful as she is intelligent. She displays good behavior in a consistent fashion and is a joy to have in class.”

- Grant Murphree, 6th grade

CIS

EH THA NAY

“Eh Tha Nay is respectful of others and is always willing to help his classmates. He works very hard at everything he does. Eh Tha Nay is an enthusiastic learner!”

- Angelica Morales, 4th grade Science

ANGIE ROJAS

“Angie is kind, caring, and friendly with her classmates. She demonstrates hard work and actively engages in small group discussions or activities. She always has a positive attitude. It is really a joy to have Angie in class!”

- Angelica Morales, 4th grade Science

CES

AUDREY ADAMS

“Audrey is the most responsible student that I’ve had in 3rd grade. She is very dependable. Audrey has integrity, and she is honest about others as well as herself. She is a great friend to others and is always helping her friends do the right thing.”

- Mrs. Dutton, 3rd grade

LOGAN GRAY

“I chose this student because he displays characteristics of a good citizen, including honesty and perseverance. He is a hard worker and is willing to help others.”

- Tellechea, 1st Grade

FLM

KYLE CONN

“He is an attentive listener, follows directions, participates in group activities and enjoys helping his friends. He always walks in with a smile on his face.”

- Ms. Monica Escalante, PreK4

BRAYLEE SMITH

“Braylee is always doing her job. She is an excellent helper and is always eager to learn something new.”

- Ms. Monica Escalante, PreK4