

Riders of the Week

November 13 - November 17

CHS

FRANUEL ARAUJO

“Franuel is very hardworking in class, he is also honest and eager to participate. He always tries his best and is willing to help his classmates.”

- Tristyn Crelia, Spanish

NAHOMI BAUTISTA

“She is super pleasant everyday. I have her 8th period and she’s like a breathe of fresh air at the end of the day! Nahomi works hard and NEVER complains! She says "see you tomorrow" everyday...and I look forward to it.”

- Dan Hodge, Geometry

CMS

ARACELY PEREZ-GONZALEZ

She has a smile that just makes you want to smile regardless of how you are feeling. She is one of our honor students, participates in athletics, band, and JCC. Aracely is friendly and helpful to her peers; as well as a respectful student and campus leader. She represents Center Middle School well!

- Felicia Cloudy, Assistant Principal

DEMARSHEA PATTON

“This is his 3rd and final year on the CMS campus and his respectful, positive attitude will be missed on this campus. He is very mild mannered, with a quiet strength that keeps him from participating in negative behaviors. I am very proud to have this student as a representative of CMS.”

- Felicia Cloudy, Assistant Principal

CIS

ROBERT “GUS” DUVON

“Gus is always helpful and attentive in class. He is a pleasure to have as a student.”

- Hope Hallmark, 4th Grade Social Studies

AZUL FIGUEROA

“Azul is always smiling and works well with others. She is great in our class.”

- Hope Hallmark, 4th Grade Social Studies

CES

PRINCY PATEL

“She displays true leadership in and out of the classroom. She is willing to help any and everyone when she can. Princy has shown friendship, and lots of creativity this semester.

- Ms. Tilley, 2nd Grade

BRAYLON WILLIAMS

“He displays all the characteristics of a good citizen from honesty to always helping his friends. He loves learning new things and getting to help others understand. He comes in with a contagious smile everyday.”

- Ms. Ruiz, 1st Grade
