

Riders of the Week

March 19 – March 23

CHS		JOSE ISRAEL BARRUETA “Israel Barrueta is an excellent student who is always kind and polite. He conscientiously completes his own assignments, and is quick to offer to help others. Israel is a pleasure to have in class!” - Edith Butler, English		KATELYN RAMIREZ “Katelyn Ramirez is a pleasure to have in class. She is always ready to try something new and learn new material in class. She participates well in class and always has intriguing questions.” - Ashley Cooper, Equine Science and Veterinary Medical Applications
CMS		HARLON (TANNER) MYERS “Tanner is a remarkable student. He brightens every day by coming into our Reading class with a big smile. Tanner strives to work hard and do his best at anything our class is doing. Words to describe Tanner would be delightful, admirable, kind, and eager to learn.” - Karen Owens, 7th grade reading		MCKENZIE JONES “While most students come into the end of the day class tired and sometimes unmotivated, it is not the case for McKenzie. She is always motivated and eager to learn. McKenzie puts forth effort in everything we do in class. She is uplifting and always ready to help others.” - Karen Owens, 7th grade Reading
CIS		SAIRA OLALDE “I’ve had the opportunity to teach Saira twice. She works hard on everything she does and always has the sweetest smile. She always treats everyone around her with respect and never has a mean thing to say to anyone. She has so many great qualities and that’s why I chose her to be Rider of the Week.” - Mrs. Olalde		KEVEN MALDONADO “He is a great friend to all of his classmates. He enjoys helping others and loves to share interesting facts he learns from his library books. In my class, he works hard and is always available to help when other students are struggling. These are just a few reasons why I chose him as Rider of the Week.” - Mrs. Olalde
CES		EDGAR CARVEO “He is respectful young man and a leader in and out of our classroom. Edgar works hard, makes great choices, makes others laugh, and is an awesome friend to everyone in our class. He encourages others to try harder and gives his best in everything he does.” - Mrs. Belrose, 3rd grade		PAW SAY “I chose this student because she has a bright smile, an incredible work ethic, and always, always, always shows respect by making good choices. She is a wonderful example to all of her peers and even encourages me to be a better person.” - Mrs. Belrose, 3rd grade
FLM		MADELYN SANFORD “Madelyn has a sweet bubbly personality! She comes in everyday with a smile, ready to learn. She is a great role model for her classmates. She is always ready and willing to help her fellow students as well as her teachers. Maddy hopes to be a hairstylist when she grows up.” -Mrs. Becky Rogers, Kindergarten		GERARD MORALES “Gerard Morales is my Rider of the Week due to his fabulous manners! He listens very attentively to his teacher and to his friends. He always lends a helping hand. He loves to learn new things! He is always very proud of his work, as he should be. Gerard works extremely hard and makes me very proud.” -Mrs. Katie Dunn, PreK4
