

DAUGHTERS OF THE REPUBLIC OF TEXAS

WILLIAM CARROLL CRAWFORD CHAPTER

SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Goal: To provide financial aid to graduating seniors to encourage and assist in the Career development of young Texans.

General Guidelines:

1. With proof of enrollment in an institution of higher learning or Vocational technical school, one student from each of the five high schools in Shelby County will receive $750 for fall or spring.
2. Applicants will be judged based on overall grade average, college entrance test scores, participation in extracurricular activities, honor and/or work experience, need and educational goals. (Included Application form.)
3. Selection will be made based on the recommendations of the Scholarship Committee and voted on by the members present at the April Meeting.
4. Recipients may attend any accredited university, college, trade or vocational school.
5. Scholarship payments will be made with proof of enrollment except under extenuating circumstances which have been approved by the committee. Proof of enrollment should be sent to the DRT Treasurer Merle Howard, 420 King Street, Center, TX 75935. Scholarship must be claimed by August 15, 2019. Contact Mrs. Howard if this cannot be met.
6. ONE letter of recommendation from a CURRENT TEACHER should be attached to the application.
7. Applicants may be asked for a personal interview with members of the Scholarship Committee.
8. Applicants MUST include a copy of their transcript from High School and College courses, if taken. Transcript MUST have your Counselor's signature.

Applications for the 2018 scholarship should be postmarked no later than March 15, 2019.
