

Riders of the Week

January 28 - February 1

CHS

OLIVER WYATT STONE

"Initially Wyatt stuck out to me because he is a great writer. I quickly learned that not only is he a dedicated student, Wyatt is kind to everyone around him, respectful with his teachers, and he is very funny."

- Sydney Brookshire, English I

CHLOE MALDONADO

"She has been my rock this year. She is eager to help and always the first one to volunteer for anything that needs to be done. There isn't a more willing person in this school to help and be there. I can always depend on Chloe and I feel that she is destined for great things!"

- Joella Summerlot, Art

CMS

VALERIA CERVANTES

"She is a super sweet young lady who never complains and always pays attention to the smallest details on her work. Valeria is always friendly and willing to help out her teachers and classmates in any way she can."

- Jessica Gurley, 6th Grade

TYCE SCARBER

"He comes in ready to learn and never complains. Tyce has taught me so many new interesting things in our class discussions because he is such an out of the box thinker and has traveled to some of the places I teach about!"

- Jessica Gurley, 6th Grade

CIS

OSVALDO RAMIREZ

"I pick Osvaldo Ramirez for Rider of the Week because he has the best attitude towards school and has a smile for everyone he meets! He inspires others to give it their all and with dignity."

- Joan Hayes, 5th Grade Social Studies

HOPE NEHRING

"I pick Hope Nehring for Rider of the Week because she is friendly to all and never is negative to others even when provoked she will find the positive side of things."

- Joan Hayes, 5th Grade Social Studies

CES

MOSES WAH

"I chose this student because he is extremely respectful to students and his teacher. He follows our school rules without being reminded. He tries really hard to do a great job on his assignments and excels at being a good listener. He is a true friend to everyone."

- Mrs. Radney, 2nd Grade

LACIE GRAY

"Lacie is an amazing friend to everyone. She is very accepting of any differences a friend may have, and doesn't like to leave anyone out. She follows all the CES rules without having to be reminded. She is a joy to have in my class."

- Mrs. Radney, 2nd Grade

FLM

ISAI HERNANDEZ

"Isai is a fantastic student. He is very responsible and not only does he help his teacher but he is always willing to help his classmates. It is an absolute pleasure to have him in my class."

- Becky Rogers, Kindergarten

KASSANDRA GONZALEZ

"Kassandra is a very social student. She volunteers to assist others all the time. Very cheerful and dynamic students, loves music and dance."

- Ms. Damaris Nunez, Kindergarten
