

Riders of the Week

February 11 - February 14

CHS

DAKOTA WAGSTAFF
“Dakota embodies Roughrider spirit. He never gives up, never gives less than his best, and he is quick to help and encourage others. The world needs more people like him!”
- Robbie Low, Physics

KAROLINA CONTRERAS
“Karolina is one of the hardest working, most efficient students I have. She doesn't settle for less than her best. I love that about her!”
- Kristen Williard, Chemistry

CMS

ERIC ALLEN
“Eric is always the first in class and never fails to help out in anyway he can. His dedication to his work is evident in all that he does.”
- Tina Bittick, 8th Grade ELAR

HOPE GORKHALI
“Hope is an excellent student and a wonderful role model for students. She is very polite, kind, generous, and she is always on task during class. Her presence in class brings a smile to my face.”
- Tina Bittick, 8th Grade ELAR

CIS

JaBRAYLON MOSBY
“I picked JaBraylon to be rider of the week because he tries very hard to complete all his work. He is willing to help me or any student that needs it. I am proud to say his reading had also improved this year.”
- Iva Nell Miller, 4th Grade Reading

ROSENDO GALLEGOS
“‘Chino,’ as he likes to be called, is respectful of both students as well as adults. He tries really hard in his work. He is fun to be around and has a wonderful smile that he shares all day long.”
- Laura Oats, 4th Grade Reading

CES

ANDREW GONZALEZ
“I chose this student because Andrew is always excited to come to school and work hard. He is always kind to his friends and instantly puts a smile on everyone’s face. I am so thankful to have Andrew in my classroom.”
- Mrs. Palm, Lifeskills

KIMBERLY HERNANDEZ-PALAFOX
“She is a hard working student, always willing to learn new things and help her classmates understand. She loves participating in class discussions.”
- Ms. Ruiz-Siso, 2nd Grade

FLM

BRYAN ARCIBAR
“Bryan has a great attitude and sets a super example for others to follow He is always willing to help a friend or me any time.”
- Lesleigh Fitzgerald, Kindergarten

SYDNEY WILSON
“Sydney is always so cheerful and energetic. She is curious about the world around her and has an eagerness to learn! She has grown so much this school year. We are all so proud of you, Sydney!”
- Patti Ratcliff, PPCD
