

Riders of the Week

February 18 – February 22

CHS

RAUL REBOLLAR

"I worked with Raul's class for one week, and in that short time, he really made an impression on me. Not only does he work extremely hard in his classes, he makes an effort to say hello in the hallway! He is kind to others, and I am lucky to have met him."

- Sydney Brookshire, English

KAROLINA CONTRERAS

"Karolina is one of the hardest working, most efficient students I have. She doesn't settle for less than her best. I love that about her!"

- Kristen Williard, Chemistry

CMS

JAKERIDYN SIMON

"Jakeridyn has really been working hard in my class and putting forth a great effort. He has been very good in group work and has really grown as a writer in my class!"

- Coach Sanchez, 7th grade Social Studies

KAREN CORDOBA

"Always respectful and very intelligent. She gives 110% on everything that she is handed and is great to have in the classroom!"

- Coach Sanchez, 7th grade Social Studies

CIS

JOSE MARQUEZ

"Jose is a fun personality to have in the classroom. He works hard and produces excellent work all while maintaining a good sense of humor. Often quiet, he is respectful and cooperates well with classmates."

- 5th Grade Social Studies

AVERY LAWSON

"Avery is a constant joy to have in the classroom. She always comes in with a great attitude and is ready to bring a little creativity into her work. With her great work ethic, organization, and attention to detail, she is a wonderful contributor to the class."

- Corey Cline, 5th Grade Social Studies

CES

GABRIEL RAMOS

"He is always cheerful and happy with a smile that is hard not to notice. He is dependable and industrious in class. Gabriel is honest and compassionate toward his peers and teachers."

- Mrs. Hooper, 2nd Grade

SYDNEE VAUGHN

"Sydnee is always smiling and has a positive attitude. She shows compassion by always being ready to help others with anything they might need. She is honest, dependable and full of determination."

- Mrs. Hooper, 2nd Grade

FLM

LOGAN ROBERTS

"Logan comes to school with a positive attitude and ready to learn. He always looks for ways to help his teachers and his friends. He is such a kind and generous student who loves to make others smile! We are so proud of you, Logan!"

- Patti Ratcliff, PreK3

ILLANA BOYKINS

"Illana is a good example for a Rider of the week. She is always trying her best and ready to learn. She follows directions and has been working really hard on her reading. She loves to Read!"

- Amber Phelps, Kindergarten
