

Center Independent School District

Riders of the Week

November 18 - November 22, 2019

CHS

RU TAH

“Ru Tah is an excellent student, and I love having her in class. In addition to this, I am so proud of her for leaving her comfort zone and trying UIL journalism this year. Our team participates in many events, and while she is already so talented, I can’t wait to see her blossom into her full potential.”
- Sydney Brookshire, English I

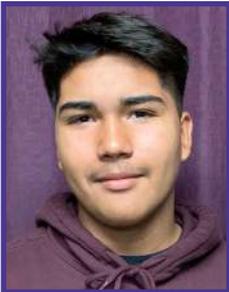

LACOREY BUCKLEY

“Not only is he deserving because of his wonderful personality/attitude but he has shown accountability for himself, his work ethic is good and he has demonstrated elements of citizenship/leadership that I greatly appreciate.”
- Kaylin Burleson, History

CMS

ADRIAN ESPINO

“Adrian has the best smile and a great attitude. He also has a sense of humor, which helps us get through that last period of the day.”
- Gladys Andrews, Personal Finance

ESMERAI HERNANDEZ

“Esmerai always comes in and gets right to work. She always does her best to get the right answers. Esmerai has a great personality and is a sweet student to have in class.”
- Gladys Andres, Personal Finance

CIS

LUPITA GARCIA-SANCHEZ

“Lupita is a great student. She always has a smile on her face and wants to make sure she has all her school work handled. Lupita is such a pleasure to have in class with her sweet and positive attitude.”
- Bre Westerfield, 5th Grade Math

FREDERICK GARDNER

“Fred makes everyone’s day better. He is always trying his best in class and willing to help out in any way he can. He can always make his classmates and myself laugh. Very proud of how well he is doing in math this year.”
- Bre Westerfield, 5th Grade Math

CES

EDUARDO MONDRAGO

“He is always so eager to learn and try new things, as well as, share his family’s culture which adds great depth to our class discussions. Eduardo is a natural leader and is always willing to lend a helping hand with a smile on his face. He has a very bright future ahead of him and I’m so very thankful to have him in my class!”
- Ms. Ratley, 3rd Grade Reading and SS

JA'REKA CALLOWAY

“Don’t let her quiet demeanor fool you! She is a spit fire when it comes to learning and trying new things and never gives up until she is completely satisfied with her work. She is a great friend who is always willing to lend a helping hand, and she gives amazing hugs! Ja'Reka has a bright future ahead of her!”
- Ms. Ratley, 3rd Grade Reading and SS

FLM

TA'KYRA HARRISON

“Ta’Kyra is a very hard worker. She is always listening and paying attention. She comes to school ready to learn. She is always nice to friends and willing to offer help whenever she can.”
- Amber Phelps, Kindergarten

MATEO GUTIERREZ

“He puts extra effort to learn, he follows instructions and is helpful to his classmates. He is a great Little Roughrider.”
- Damaris Nunez, Kindergarten