

Riders of the Week

October 26 – October 30, 2015

Anna

Carter

Mrs. Crouch and Mrs. Corbell have chosen Anna Hagler to be the Rider of the Week. Anna enjoys playing school when she gets home in the afternoons and reading her favorite book, The Secret Cookie Club, because she likes to hear about the interesting lives of the girls. Her role model is her cousin Keelan because she treats others in a nice a respectful way. When Anna grows up, she wants to be a teacher because she says she really likes kids. Mrs. Corbell describes Anna “as the model for R3 (Riders are Respectful and Responsible) and is a huge help in the classroom. Anna is always willing to help other classmates or any adult that needs help. Anna carries herself with grace and humility and is one of our superstars here at CES!”

Mrs. Jurecka has chosen Carter Tomlin as Rider of the Week. His favorite movie is The Avengers because he loves to watch The Hulk, Ironman, Black Widow and Thor all in the action. His role model is his brother Ryker because he spends time with Carter and is nice to everyone. When Carter grows up, he really wants to be a professional quarterback so he can lead his team to victory. For fun, Carter enjoys playing video games with his brother when he gets home. Mrs. Jurecka describes Carter as “a very responsible young man who always gets his work done and on time. He loves to help other students whenever they need help. He follows the rules and sets a great example for other students to follow. He gives his best in everything he does. These are just a few of the reasons Carter is a super star at CES!”

Center Elementary School

R³ = Roughriders are Respectful and Responsible