

Riders of the Week

January 4 – January 8

Zy'Kevius

Saira

Mrs. Olalde has chosen Saira Olalde for Rider of the Week. Saira's favorite book is Junie B. Jones because it makes her laugh, and she loves to play hide-n-seek with her friends at school and home. Her parents are her role models because they keep her safe and they take good care of her. When Saira grows up, she wants to be a teacher because she wants to help people learn and keep students safe. Mrs. Olalde says Saira is "a caring and thoughtful friend to anyone around her and is always looking for ways to help others. You can always count on Saira to do what is right, no matter what others are doing. Her work ethic is amazing and she always participates in a positive way in class. These are just a few reasons why Saira is a super star at CES!

Mrs. Ruiz has chosen Zy'Kevius Villegas for Rider of the Week. Zy'Kevius's favorite book is The Littlest Elf because he likes how the elf and reindeer become friends. He loves to play tag with his friends at school. When Zy'Kevius grows up, he wants to be a football player because he will get to tackle people and his family will cheer for him. His father is his role model because he keeps him safe and takes good care of him. Zy'Kevius's teacher says, "he is an all-around exceptional student that follows the rules and goes above and beyond what is expected of him. He is a wonderful leader in his classroom because he is always doing what he is supposed to from start to finish. He is a friend to everyone and shows everyone respect. He gives 120% and is a super star at CES!

Center Elementary School

R³ = Roughriders are Respectful and Responsible