

Riders of the Week

February 22 – February 26

Alondra

Wade

Mrs. Crouch has chosen Wade Collard for Rider of the Week. His favorite movie is Star Wars: The Force Awakens because he likes spoiler alert how they found Luke Skywalker at the very end. His role model is his cousin because he helps Wade with anything he needs help with and he takes time to play with Wade. When Wade grows up, he plans on becoming a graphic designer because he really wants to make video games. For fun, Wade loves to play video games after he gets his homework. Mrs. Crouch says, “Wade is a hard worker who loves to read and enjoys learning new information. Wade is quick to help others when they need it and enjoys working with his classmates. Wade is thoughtful and respectful and almost always brings a smile to the classroom. These are a few of the reasons why Wade is a super star at CES.”

Alondra Almaguer has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Mrs. Sullivan. Her favorite movie is Inside out because she loves to see the girl go through lots of emotions, but she loves she has joy the most. Her role model is her teacher because she is always nice to Alondra and she takes good care of her students. Alondra really wants to grow up to be a teacher because she thinks it would be fun to get to teach children. For fun, Alondra loves to learn new things and she gets to do it everyday! Mrs. Sullivan says, “Alondra is such a sweet and considerate friend that makes everyone feel good by always including them. Alondra can be counted on to be the one eager to learn and always listening. She works hard on everything she does and gives everything 100% effort. These are just a few reasons that make Alondra a super star at CES!”
