

Riders of the Week

March 7 – March 11

Mrs. Sullivan has chosen Jayden Rojas for Rider of the Week. His favorite book is the Dr. Seuss Book because he loves how it has fun things in it that make him laugh. His role model is her father because he takes time to teach Jayden how to fix a car, grow a garden and how to take care of animals. When Jayden grows up, he wants to become a doctor so he can help children get better when they are sick. For fun, Jayden enjoys playing tennis with his brother when he goes home. Mrs. Sullivan chosen Jayden because he is “a great role model for other students. He is always involved in his work and takes his time on each assignment. He likes to make sure that his work is very neat and ensures each and every time that it is. Jayden sets the bar high for others to follow. These are a few reasons why Jayden is a super star at CES!”

Mrs. Corbell and Crouch have chosen Valeria Garcia for Rider of the Week. Valeria’s favorite movie is Cinderella because she loves the music in the movie. Her mom is her role model because she cares about Valeria by making sure she has food to eat. When Valeria grows up, she wants to become a teacher because she thinks it would be fun to help students learn. For fun, Valeria loves to do cart wheels when she gets home from school. Valeria’s teachers say that she “is an AWESOME student. Valeria is the type of student that walks into the rook very quietly, sits down and gets busy. She is kind to others and never draws attention to herself. She always tries to do her very best in anything asked of her. These are just a few reasons that make Valeria a super star at CES!”
