

Riders of the Week

March 28 – April 1

Gage Vidrine has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Mrs. Ruiz. His favorite book is Marines because he gets to read about being a Marine. He loves to pretend he is a Marine with his cousin for fun, and hopes to become a Marine when he grows up so he can save the world! Gage's teacher, Mrs. Ruiz, says, "Gage displays good character from the time he gets to school till it is time to go home. He is always willing to help his teacher or his classmates anytime it is needed. He comes to school ready to learn and always does what is expected of him. Gage is a good friend to everyone and encourages all of his peers to do their best with everything. These are a few reasons why Gage is a super star at CES!"

Mrs. Corbell and Ms. Crouch have chosen Hollie Herndon for Rider of the Week. Her favorite book is Cinderella in the City because it is a modern version of the old story. Her role model is Elvis Presley because she loves the way he sings and he makes her feel joyful! When Hollie grows up, she wants to become a fashion designer because she could design something that has never been designed before and bright colors make her feel happy. Mrs. Corbell and Crouch say that Hollie "is a friend to everyone and does her best to help make others feel good. Hollie makes her classroom entertaining with her wit and charm. She is responsible, detail oriented, and is on task at all times. Watching Hollie do her just start dance and exercise helps everyone to start their day off having lots of fun. She can find the good in every situation. These are just a few reasons that make Hollie a super star at CES!"
