

Riders of the Week

November 30 – December 4, 2015

Angelica

Nathanael

Angelica Garcia has been chosen as Rider of the Week by her teacher, Ms. Hill. Angelica's favorite book is The Little Old Lady that is Not Afraid of Anything because she likes to read about the different objects that start moving. Her role model is her mother because she helps Angelica to do the right things. When Angelica grows up, she wants to become a chef because she loves to create new dishes and taste what she cooks. For fun, Angelica loves to play freeze tag with her sister when she gets home from school. Angelica's teacher says that she "always tries to do her very best, no matter what she is doing. She loves to help her classmates with schoolwork or cleanup. She always sets a good example for others to follow and is one of our role models at CES!"

Mrs. Corbell has chosen Nathanael Rafael for Rider of the Week. His favorite movie is Goosebumps because he likes that it is scary. His older brother is his role model because he is nice to Nathanael and he treats others very well. When he grows up, Nathanael plans on becoming a professional soccer player because he loves to play soccer with his brother when he gets home. Nathanael's teacher says "he is a great student that always gives 110% in everything he does. You can always count on him to have a smile on his face and a compliment in his heart. He is always on his best behavior even when no one is watching him. He is most certainly one of our supers stars at CES!"
