

Riders of the Week

December 7 – December 11, 2015

Mrs. Corbell has chosen Jamie Cruz for Rider of the Week. She loves Nancy Drew books because they are funny when Nancy messes things up. Her role model is her older sister Jharitza because she helps her when she needs help and she is always nice to everyone. When Jamie grows up, she hopes to be a doctor because she wants to help others when they are hurting. For fun, Jamie loves to do math problems when she gets home. Jamie's teacher describes her as an "awesome student that always tries her absolute best in everything she does. She always has kind word for everyone and is willing to help anyone in need. She is quiet and calm with an incredible smile and wonderful disposition. These are some of the reasons that Jamie is a super star at CES!"

Ms. Lyles has chosen Bryan Ramirez for Rider of the Week. His favorite movie is The Peanuts Movie because it is super funny! His sister Mariam is his role model because she is super nice to him and she is always willing to help Bryan with his homework. Bryan wants to grow up to be a police officer because he really wants to drive a car with flashing lights and a siren. Bryan's teacher describes him as "a very responsible and respectful student who can always be counted on to do his very best in everything. He is always smiling and is so much fun to be around. You will always find Bryan in Rider Stride when in the hallway. He is someone that can be counted on to help others in need. Bryan is an excellent role model at CES!"
