

Riders of the Week

March 7 – March 11

Mr. Samford has chosen Alexis Salas for Rider of the Week. Alexis loves to go to clinicals for phlebotomy and spending time with her friends and family. When she graduates, she plans on becoming a nurse practitioner because she has a passion for helping people and helping people feel better. Her mother and father are her role models because they have shown Alexis that no matter how tough life gets, it always gets better. Her favorite movie is The Fault in Our Stars. Mr. Samford says, “Alexis Salas has consistently shown admirable diligence and is excelling in the top 5% of my classes. She is active in extra curricular activities, hardworking and an excellent role model for her peers. Alexis is smart, energetic, and a pleasure to teach and converse with.”

Jeff Samford has also chosen Daniel Chavez for Rider of the Week. Daniel loves to go out with friends to eat and watch his favorite movie Southpaw. He also enjoys performing with his brothers and playing soccer with his teammates on game day. He has two role models: his brother, who teaches him how to be a better person at everything, and Stephanie, who pushed him and motivates him to try harder in school. He says they both make his life better. When Daniel grows up, he plans on becoming a sound engineer. He is passionate about music and plays a variety of instruments. He says being a sound engineer will allow him to be around what he loves – instruments and music! Mr. Samford says, “Daniel is a hard worker that continuously stays in the top 5% of my classes. He is an exceptional and popular athlete on the soccer field. He is a very good example of an exemplary CHS student!”
