

Riders of the Week

April 25 – April 29

Jimmy Musico

Jimmy Musico has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Coach Rodriguez. Jimmy's favorite movie is American Me, and he loves to play with his nieces and nephews for fun. He enjoys buying them food, toys and candy when they ask. His role model is Cesar Chavez because he fought for Hispanic rights. When Jimmy grows up, he would like to be a councilor so he can help people with suicidal problems. Coach Rodriguez says, "Jimmy comes into class, sits down, and gets straight to work. He is quiet in class, and nice to his classmates. I have enjoyed teaching Jimmy this year."

Kailan Randle

Kailan Randle has also been chosen for Rider of the Week by Coach Rodriguez. Kailan's favorite book is Flipped by Wendelin Van Draanen, and she loves to hang out with friends, play volleyball and listen to music. Her role model is her mother because she is caring and hard working. When Kailan grows up, she wants to be a psychologist because she wants to work with kids and "helping them seems cool." Coach Rodriguez says, "I chose Kailan because she walks into class with the biggest smile every day. She works hard in class, and she enjoys learning biology each day. Kailan is always willing to help others in the classroom when she is finished with her work."
