

Riders of the Week

May 2 - May 6

Milly Medina

Coach Romero has chosen Milly Medina for Rider of the Week. Milly's favorite movie is The Blind Side, and she loves to go on walks or runs with her dogs on cool evenings. Her role model is Martin Luther King Jr. because he died and fought for what he believed in. When Milly grows up, she hopes to become a game warden because she says that the career is like "being a body guard for mother nature." She believes it is important to protect what can't protect itself. Coach Romero says, "She is a great student. She always has a smile on her face. She gets people to smile and laugh. I know she will do good things in her future."

Coach Romero has also chosen Antonio Chavez for Rider of the Week. His favorite movie is Ride Along 2, and he loves to play basketball. His role model is Stephen Curry because he has overcome many things, such as injuries and doubt from fans. When Antonio grows up, he would like to be an important runner. Ms. Romero says Antonio is a, "great student! He is fun and easy going. He does all his work and is always willing to help others. He is also a good athlete!"
